Dear Mr. Morgan and Mr. Sutton,

The Home Builders Association of Greater Cincinnati is proud to endorse your candidacies for Fairfield Township Trustee for the upcoming election on November 3, 2009. We recognize your community leadership and we thank you for all your hard work and effort in making Fairfield Township a better place to live and work. Our endorsement of you as a candidate will be communicated to the membership with an encouragement to support you at the polls.

The HBA of Greater Cincinnati is a trade association which represents over 900 builder and associate member companies including about 15,000 employees in the Greater Cincinnati area. We promote professionalism within the industry, educational opportunities, economic growth and community development.

We wish you the best of luck and look forward to working with you in the future on critical issues like the economic impact of housing and other critical issues. As we consider you a friend to our industry, please consider us the same to you. The HBA of Greater Cincinnati will be a valuable resource to you as we work mutually to support the community and our industry. Please consider us at your disposal. We again thank you for running and being a leader committed to solving issues that matter to our local residents.

Sincerely,
